Learning the Art of Communication

Course Overview

Brian Tracy has rightly said, "Communication is a skill that you can learn. It's like riding a bicycle or typing. If you're willing to work at it, you can rapidly improve the quality of every part of your life".

It's a very well known fact that every year thousands of our graduates go unemployed. It's not that they don't have sound knowledge of their subject but mostly because of their inexpressibility that keeps them on the back foot. They lack necessary interpersonal skills needed to be effective. One amongst them is Communication. One should always remember that we connect, share and influence one another by communicating. It makes our lives better. A good communication skill can take you anywhere in the world. It can boost your confidence and can give you better results. In a way you can improve your life by working on your communication skills.

Keeping in view the need of the present topic for our students, this course aims to provide them a platform where they can develop knowledge of the subject, analytical ability, clarity of thought and appropriate learning of body language for their various professional goals.
