

LL.B. (Three Year) Professional Degree Course

The student shall be required to study 23 compulsory theory papers and 4 compulsory practical papers in addition to 3 optional papers (30 papers in all) over a period of three years during 6 semesters according to the scheme given below:

Fourth Semester

Compulsory:

1. Civil Procedure Code
2. Criminal Procedure Code
3. Law of Evidence

Optional:

4. Law Relating to Crime against Women

Or,

Offences against Child and Juvenile Offences

Practical:

5. Alternative Dispute Resolution [Written Exam: 60 Marks; Clinical Work Assessment: 30 Marks; Viva: 10 Marks]

Third Internship: For 20 days during summers (preferably in vacations) [In affiliated Law colleges located in plain areas, this can be increased by further 10 days provided that these additional 10 days' internship is deducted from the fourth ionternship which shall then be reduced to 20 days in duration]